Days are black but who is left (who isn't blind) to find out?

Where is that person who has lived in the desert?

Did he not find the way or did he get lost? Childhood

Forces

My heart is lost but I thought this was the right path.

Where is the help?

Where is my way up or down?!

My dead child will be alive

Perhaps when light fills the world, perhaps at night.

Unimportant, my child

know, that in nothing there is nothing

You know that

Go your way and fly

Forget words, see the sky and just fly

Open your wings

In the distance there is nothing but a way, your way.

Make it there and be the first In the darkness there is no more dark My childhood you lost, oh god, don't give the young life like the childhood I'm Zaal. I'm 18 years old, and I come from Iran. I found out when I was 12 that I had pedophilia — I love kids more than normal people do. One of my biggest fears was that other people would discover my secret. It was a nightmare because I really needed help but nobody ever helped me when I was younger. When I discovered my pedophilia at age 12 a darkness came that stayed with me. Most children at my age just enjoy life, but I had to sit and think about what to do next. I had to fight it alone — 12 years old without help and with a big secret in my heart. I got depressed, I had a hard time, and I was all alone. My dad also beat me regularly and was very harsh with me, and that made it even harder.

At 14 all my friends liked girls but I liked younger boys. It scared me. I wanted to die but even to do that was a struggle. I attempted suicide 3 times. I'm glad it didn't work. Along with pedophilia I was bullied a lot and it was a very hard time. Many pedophiles know that feeling — when you hear other people talking about pedophiles, they think we are all animals.

Pedophilia is not something that makes you a bad person, but nobody was there to help me. And when the topic came up in conversations most people said, "Pedophiles are like animals, they should be killed".

The only thing that helped me after all those years was finding Virtuous Pedophiles (virped.org) at age 17. It was a new world, I found out I could be a husband, I could even be a father some day, and I could be a person who isn't dangerous.

I won't tell you my whole story. I'm here to show you that if you are like me, you can win over pedophilia. If you know somebody like me, you can help him/her.

Pedophiles like me need love and kindness from people, because we are under enough pressure and not happy because of our pedophilia. Even your smile can make a pedophile happy. Remember a pedophile isn't a child molester — we are attracted to children sexually and sometimes emotionally. We want to keep children safe too. We are human and have feelings too. I'm happy and honored because I can show you a little of a real pedophile's world, and show you we are not monsters. We just need your help and support.

I have a request. Next time you meet a pedophile, don't assume he or she is a bad person or evil. If you are a pedophile, don't assume you are bad or evil.

I wish you luck and hope I've shown you how hard a pedophile's life is. I hope that one day all children will be safe, and one day pedophiles can get help without fear.
